

YOUNG WOMAN BADLY HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

A 21-year-old Littlestown R. 2 woman, Mrs. Mary A. Wolfe, suffered a fractured pelvis and lacerations of the head when a car in which she was a passenger collided with another auto in Mt. Pleasant, between Littlestown and Hanover, Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The accident was one of three investigated by state police Sunday.

Police said Mrs. Wolfe's husband, James O. Wolfe, 22, Littlestown R. 2, was driving north at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning and attempted to brake for the stop sign at the intersection. His car skidded on into the intersection and was struck by a west-bound car operated by Edward E. Bless, 34, of 57 E. King St., Littlestown. Damage was estimated at $125. Mrs. Wolfe suffered her injuries when thrown from car by the impact. She was removed to the Hanover hospital.

2 RT. 15 CRASHES

In an accident at 10:45 o'clock Sunday morning, eight miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd., Joseph H. Timmerman, 33, Gettysburg R. 2, was driving from Emmitsburg to Gettysburg, when he noticed cars ahead slipping on a hill and halted his car to permit the others to clear the hill before proceeding. While his car was stopped, another northbound auto operated by Istvan S. Balogh, Staten Island, N. Y., ran into the rear of Timmerman's halted auto. Balogh posted a forfeit fine of $10 and $5 costs before Justice of the Peace John Whitman, Cumberland Twp., before.

Rusk, Bowles, Stevenson Get Kennedy Posts

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy today picked Dean Rusk, head of the Rockefeller Foundation, to be his secretary of state.

Kennedy also announced at a news conference the appointment of Adlai Stevenson as ambassador to the United Nations.

And he named Rep. Chester Bowles, D-Conn., as undersecretary of state.

The three appointments were announced by the president-elect on the patio of his Atlantic shore home.

Rusk, a Democrat who served as an assistant secretary of state in the Truman administration, was at his side. Stevenson and Bowles were not present.

APPROVES OF RUSK

Kennedy offered the U.N. ambassadorship to Stevenson, the 1962 and 1966 Democratic presidential nominee, last week. But Stevenson asked for time to think it over—apparently wanting to know first who would be secretary of state.

The announcement of Stevenson's appointment meant, therefore, that he was willing to serve under Rusk.

Rusk, 51, is a native of Georgia and a Presbyterian. He has been head of the Rockefeller Foundation for nine years.

Kennedy, reading a prepared statement, said Rusk would bring to the new administration and his particular position a long record of ability in the field of foreign affairs.

LAUDS TWO AIDES

The president-elect mentioned specifically Rusk's former association with the State Department. On the new administration's foreign policy, Kennedy said he hoped that it will become generally identified with the concept of being "anti-Communist."

Rusk told the news conference he is accepting "a compelling and sober responsibility."

He called Stevenson "one of our greatest Americans" and also praised Bowles warmly.

Christmas Seals Brings In $2,919

Christmas seal sales through Saturday had brought in $2,919.80 to the Adams County Tuberculosis Society, a total slightly below the sum for the comparable 23-day period of the 1959 sale when $2,957 had been received.

In urging countians to "answer your Christmas seal letter today," President H. Thomas Pyle said: "When you put Christmas seals on all your holiday mail, you do more than just add a colorful decoration to your cards and envelopes. You join in the fight against the nation's No. 1 infectious killer, tuberculosis. Fight TB with Christmas seals on every card, every package. Answer your Christmas seal letter today."

COURT OKAYS CUMBERLAND ROAD CHANGE

The Adams County court this morning approved relocation of part of Township Rd. 411, in Cumberland Twp. near its intersection with the Ridge Rd. which will do away with a long curve over property of Henry Carbaugh and the Smyser Folkenroth estate.

The petition was one of several before the court which found many of its officers unable to be present this morning because of the snow. Among the "missing" were Prothonotary Herbert W. Miller, Biglerville R. D.; Associate Judges Clarence Deardorff, McKnightstown, and Earl Guise, Gettysburg R. D.; and Court Crier William Yingling, Littlestown.

An official announcement by the court took care of a "problem" that had been concerning court attendants and attorneys. In keeping with the annual custom of holding court the first Monday in January, the court in setting up the calendar for next year had listed court for January 2.

PLAN $50,000 SPAN

January 2 is also the official observance of New Year's Day because January 1 falls on Sunday. Since various items had been advertised for January 2, there will have to be an opening of court on that date. But immediately all matters will be postponed to January 3 and court closed for the day.

At the request of Attorney Donald G. Oyler, representing the county commissioners, the court

FIRE DESTROYS BECKER STORE AND 150 ACRES OVER WEEKEND

Fires over the weekend destroyed 150 acres of timberland on Green Ridge and the John Becker Store on S. Washington St.

Gettysburg firemen were called at 3:45 o'clock Sunday afternoon when an overheated chimney set fire to articles in the store.

Most of the damage was confined to the storeroom where dresses, suits, blankets, radio and television sets, guns and ammunition were burned or badly damaged by water and smoke.

Firemen found the interior of the store in flames and the remainder of the building, owned by Mrs. Mary Roberts, S. Washington St., filled with smoke.

ESTIMATE $4,000 LOSS

Fire Chief Francis I. Linn estimated the loss at $500 to the building and $3,500 to the contents of the store. He said Becker told him he had recently completed an inventory of the store which showed "the loss of stock to be about $3,500." The loss is partially covered by insurance, Becker said.

The fire burned up a stairway but was extinguished before serious damage was done to the second floor.

Cashtown firemen were among those called to fight a forest fire that burned the area from the Teaberry Rd. to the Three Springs Rd. on top of Green Ridge about six miles west of Cashtown Saturday night. The Forestry Department at Mont Alto and the South Mountain Fire Co. joined Cashtown in battling the blaze. Backfires from along the roads adjoining the fire brought it under control about midnight Saturday.

150 ACRES BURNED

Cashtown firemen were called about 10 o'clock Saturday night and returned about 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning. Chief Owen Bucher estimated the burned area at 150 acres. He said it the largest forest fire fought by Cashtown firemen in his recollection.

A closed hunting camp nearby was of stone construction. "Fortunately the wind was blowing away from the camp," Bucher said.

Chief Bucher, who had been shopping here during the evening, saw the fire when he was going home. As a result the Cashtown firemen were ready for action when they received the call.

SEMINARIANS PLAN CONCERT

The Mount St. Mary's Seminary Schola Cantorum assisted by a brass ensemble will present its annual chapel program in the college chapel Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. In recent years the schola has drawn an overflow crowd.

The program will include a brief sermon by Rt. Rev. Msgr. George D. Mulcahy, rector of the seminary, and the reading of the gospel from the Midnight Mass of Christmas by Clair Redding.

The concert will feature "Motet and Royal Fanfare" by Josquin des Pres; Britten's "Procession From a Ceremony of Carols"; Kodaly's "Ave Maria"; "O Little Town of Bethlehem"; Zink's "Sinfonia in Tromba"; by Giuseppe Torelli; with Ralph Minnich, trumpet soloist; "Softly the Stars Were Shining" by Torovsky; "Il Est Ne" by Wagner; "The Holy Day," by Sacco; with Benjamin Cueto, tenor soloist; "Sonata pian e forte," by Gabrieli, by brass ensemble and organ; "Angels We Have Heard on High," arranged by Stone; "Recession From a Ceremony of Carols," by Britten, and "The Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "The Messiah."

The program will be under the direction of the Rev. David W. Shaum, assisted by Francis X. Callahan. Owen Mullen will serve as organist. Ralph Minnich will direct the brass ensemble featuring James Carl, Joseph Chalker and Jack Spearing; on trumpets; Carrol Crum, Pamela Price and Carolyn Ruby, and violinist, Judy David.

FIREMEN CALLED

Emmitsburg firemen were called at 7 o'clock Sunday evening when a furnace pipe broke at the home of Ruth Myers, S. Seton Ave., partially filling the house with smoke. No actual fire was involved.

DRIVER NABBED

Samuel E. Weaver, 27, 145 Linden Ave., Hanover, was arrested by Gettysburg borough police at 4:45 o'clock Sunday afternoon and placed in the county jail on a charge of driving while under the influence.

Blame Accidents On Slippery Roads

Borough police attribute the heavy snow to two minor traffic accidents over the weekend, both occurring within an hour Sunday.

At 11:25 a.m., Ray Demery, 18, Pembroke, N. C., was traveling east on York St., when his car skidded and struck a parked 1960 Falcon. Damage to the Falcon, owned by C. R. Wolff, 218 York St., was estimated at $175 while Demery's Buick suffered $100 damage.

The second accident occurred at 12:30 p.m. when John Coleman, Gettysburg R. 3, driving a 1950 Buick, drove out from E. Confederate Ave. Kenneth D. Selby, who was driving east on Middle St., in a 1957 Ford, drove his car to the left to miss Coleman and skidded, striking a parked 1958 Oldsmobile owned by Frank Linn, 210 E. Middle St. Damage was estimated at $150 to the Oldsmobile and $150 to the Ford.

WOULD FORM AUTHORITY

If the balloting shows the majority of the persons who will have to pay for it approve construction, the township supervisors will set up an authority which in turn will sell bonds and from the funds thus raised install the system. The bond would be paid off over the years from the sewer and water bills paid by the residents of the community.

The supervisors said the five men they would name as the authority board, if the plan is approved, would be from Bonneauville.

William H. Sease Jr., Harrisburg engineer, said the estimated cost of the installation would be "about $185,000."

BONNEAUVILLE SEEKS SEWER, WATER SYSTEM

Bonneauville residents are considering installation of a water and sewer system in their community.

Sunday afternoon despite snow approximately 150 residents of the area gathered in the Bonneauville Fire Hall for a meeting with the Mt. Pleasant Twp. supervisors on the proposal and at the end of the meeting a large majority, by standing vote, indicated their desire for installation of both sewer and water systems.

Final decision, however, will follow a survey of all the residents in the Bonneauville area. The supervisors named a committee to send ballots to all of the property holders of the Bonneauville area. The ballots will permit voting in favor of a water system, in favor of a sewer system, in favor of installation of both sewer and water, and opposition to the plans.

WOULD FORM AUTHORITY

If the balloting shows the majority of the persons who will have to pay for it approve construction, the township supervisors will set up an authority which in turn will sell bonds and from the funds thus raised install the system. Heaviest December Storm Since 18-Inch Fall In 1917 Blankets County Sunday

BURGLARS GET $400 AT LITTLESTOWN

Burglars who broke open a door on the south side of the building. They rolled the safe from the front of the store to a rear storage room where they "peeled" open the front of the safe.

Then they removed $250 in change kept in the safe by the store itself and $150 in bills placed there by the Jaycees.

The Junior Chamber money came from the sale of Christmas trees being conducted in front of the store by the Littlestown organization. The store had given permission for the placing of the money in the safe over the weekend.

ROADS ARE HAZARDOUS

This was the first time in nine years that a heavy fall of snow has occurred here in December. The big snows for this area have come in the first three months of the year in recent years.

OPEN ANNEX TO BRETHREN CHURCH HOME

The doors of the new addition to the Church of the Brethren Home, Cross Keys, were opened to the public Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m.

A tour of the three-story addition was guided by board and auxiliary members.

The recently completed wing of the Brethren Home features the most modern conveniences for elderly patients.

Construction on the addition began in March, and according to a spokesman for the general contractors, Carson-Linebaugh, York, the finishing touches to the job will be applied within two weeks.

A tour of the present quarters showed the visitors the home's need for additional space and improved facilities. The lower level, where crowded conditions offer the best example, is the laundry, a room which measures only 10 by 15 feet. The daily intake of the laundry is about 200 pounds. The new laundry in the addition is approximately 20 by 25 feet with the latest in washing and drying appliances, capable of handling a daily wash of 400 pounds.

The new quarters make available 46 more beds, with a five-bed ward on each of the two main levels plus 14 double rooms and eight single rooms. The rooms correspond with the color scheme carried throughout the halls — pink, aqua and grey. About 20 bed-fast patients will occupy these rooms.

A room to accommodate visitors or employees who may reside at the home has been constructed on the lower level. Sun porches, an added attraction to the new wing, will be available to patients of the two main floors.

The duties of the practical nurse and her aide will be eased somewhat with the installation of a public address system in each room.

The home, acquired about nine years ago, draws its residents from six counties, comprising the Southern District. They include York, Adams, Franklin, Cumberland, Perry and a portion of Juniata.

Dedication services for the new wing will be held Sunday, Jan. 15, with James Renz, of the Church of the Brethren Home office staff, Elgin, Ill., as speaker.

Mrs. A. F. Crouse Dies Sunday At 100

Mrs. Elizabeth Crouse, 100, widow of A. Frank Crouse, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Airy Bish, Westminster R. 1, Mt. Pleasant, on Sunday at 8:25 a.m. She was born June 19, 1860. She was a daughter of the late Joseph L. and Matilda Sholl Sharer. Her husband preceded her in death in September, 1935. Mrs. Crouse was the last member of her family. She was a member of St. Benjamin's (Kriders) Lutheran Church near Westminster.

There are two children surviving, Mrs. Airy Bish, with whom she resided, and Oliver L. Crouse, who resides at the same address, and one grandson.

Funeral services at 2 p.m. Wednesday from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown. Her pastor, the Rev. Willis R. Brenneman, will officiate. Interment will be in the church cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home on Tuesday evening.

College Is Given $1,500 By Texaco

Gettysburg College again has been selected by Texaco, Inc., as one of the privately financed United States colleges and universities to be included in the company's aid-to-education program. General Willard S. Paul, president announced the receipt of Texaco's $1,500 check Saturday. The grant is for the 1960-61 academic year and is without restriction as to its use.

Texaco's support of higher education for the 1960-61 academic year amounts to approximately $700,000, the company stated, and is based on the belief that an investment in America's youth and the continued well-being of its colleges and universities in the future welfare of the economy and the country.

NEW YORK (AP)—The heaviest prewinter storm in Weather Bureau annals dumped 17 inches of snow on the New York metropolitan area today, snarling transportation, crippling business and closing schools.

The Weather Bureau said the blizzard, which began Sunday, would continue throughout the afternoon with winds up to 40 miles an hour, and a temperature of 17 degrees.

OPEN CAPSULE OF SATELLITE

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—How much radiation the Discoverer XVIII satellite encountered on its 48 trips around the world is expected to be determined today when Air Force scientists open up the gold-plated capsule from the satellite containing human tissue, algae, bacteria, bread mold and radiation measuring devices called dosimeters.

Dr. George W. Crawford, a nuclear physicist at the School of Aviation Medicine at Brooks Air Force Base, said a more accurate estimate could be made by midweek.

A seven-man panel of scientists last week reported that study of the Discoverer XVII capsule which orbited the earth Nov. 12-14 encountered unexpected heavy radiation because of an explosion on the sun but that it could have carried a man safely through space.

The Discoverer XVIII capsule was snagged in a similar manner by a C119 after a parachute had slowed its descent over the Pacific Ocean 400 miles from Hawaii Saturday.

MORE JOBLESS, MORE WORKING

WASHINGTON (AP)—Unemployment topped four million in November—the highest idle figure for the month since depression days of the 30s. The number at work was also a record.

The government reported today that job changes between October and November were mainly seasonal except for a further decline of 150,000 in factory employment.

These are the November figures: Employment—down by 300,000. The totals were 67,490,000 in October as compared with 67,182,000 in November. The November total is still a record for the month, despite the decline.

Unemployment—up 450,000. The totals were 3,579,000 in October and 4,031,000 in November. The rate of unemployment declined slightly from 6.4 per cent in October to 6.3 per cent in November, but the Labor Department said the change was insignificant.

The number of the long-term unemployed, those idle for 15 weeks or longer, remained unchanged in November at about one million. This is one-fourth of the total unemployed.

World Briefs

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—The government announced Saturday it will guarantee safety of American private investments in Morocco to speed economic development under the current five-year plan. Guarantee agreements will be signed with the United States, Italy and two international agencies, officials said.

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Poland's Communist government has given the nation's only private plane owner permission to keep his aircraft. He is Pawel Zolotow, one of Poland's aviation leaders, who rebuilt a wrecked single-engine plane at his own expense.

PARIS (AP)—France's dollar reserves have nearly doubled in the past two years. The Finance Ministry reported they were $1.05 billion as of Jan. 1, 1959. This year they are expected to reach $2.07 billion.

In the same period France reimbursed foreign creditors more than $1.2 billion, about one-third of its total foreign debts.

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Fourteen persons were killed and 40 injured in three accidents during Argentina's Gran Prix stock car races Sunday. Most of the victims were struck by two cars which plunged off the track and into crowds of spectators.

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII expressed sorrow today over the violence and bloodshed in Algeria.

The 79-year-old supreme ruler of the Roman Catholic Church spoke at a special audience for students of the Pontifical Latin American College. The Pope said he hoped the Algerian fighting would be ended quickly and peacefully.

King St., Littlestown, who died on Friday in the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown. The Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Littlestown, officiated. Interment was in Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Littlestown. The pallbearers were Paul E. King, Fred W. King, Harold Cool, Worthington A. Crabbs, Charles Collins and Stanley M. Staub.

COURT OKAYS

postponed until January 3, a hearing on a proposal of the commissioners to construct a new bridge over Marsh Creek between Cumberland and Freedom Twp. The hearing was to have been held today. The proposed bridge and its approaches will cost $50,000, according to an estimate submitted by the engineering firm of Wells and Wells, of Bethlehem and Gettysburg, as part of the original petition. The bridge will be located on the road from the Fairfield Rd. to the Pumping Station Rd. Cars now ford the site where the bridge is to be placed if the court approves.

MASTER NAMED

Mary A. Watson, deceased, and her heirs and assigns were "forever barred" from any interest in 17 acres of land in Hamilton Twp. on an action to quiet title brought by Donald F. and Emma U. Wills, Raymond and Lola Forsythe, Vaughn E. and Hope E. Dagenhart, R. R. and Flora Keyes, James C. and Bessie V. Talant and Sarah A. Houck against Mary A. Watson's heirs.

Attorney John A. MacPhail was appointed in the divorce action of Richard Arlen Elder versus Catherine Louise (Chronister) Elder.

The court granted permission for Guy E. Gross, now imprisoned at the State Correctional Institution, Huntingdon, to come here December 17 at 9 a.m. for a hearing before Attorney John A. MacPhail, master in the divorce action brought by Gloria C. Gross against Guy E. Gross. The action was on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus submitted by Gross who said he wishes to defend the divorce action. Transportation and expenses involved will be paid by Gross, according to the action of the court.

February 6 at 10 a.m. was set as time for a hearing on a petition of Warren Carson to "fix a fair value under the deficiency judgment act." Carson alleges he brought judgment in the sum of $11,500 last January against Richard and Kathryn T. Carson. August 13 public sale was held of the 32-acre property in Menallen Twp. Carson noted that as of the date of sale interest on the judgment was $6,995.83, costs $237.56 and attorney's commissions $924.79. Carson purchased the property for $1,100, and the $59.39 taxes and costs of the taxing authorities were paid. The assessed value of the property at the time was $512. Carson is asking the court to declare the fair market value of the property is $1,100.

The court approved lowering the bond of George Wihlde, administrator of the estate of Ervin L. Harbold, late of Latimore Twp., from $43,250 to $2,000. The petition explained that $183,371 of the estate had been turned over to the heirs leaving only $1,000 for possible further legal action and other expenses in the hand of the executor. The legal action pertains to suits brought in connection with Harbold's death which resulted from an auto accident.

Among administrators who were discharged by the court after having done all required in the estates handled by them including distribution of all funds were Donald W. Bowers, Hazel G. Harrison and Marie E. Arter in the estates of Helen M. Bowers and Harry E. Bowers, late of Littlestown; Margaret Horner Scott in the estate of J. Hugh Scott and Ruth M. Witherow in the estate of William W. Witherow.

The court signed approval for suspension of the support order against Max Sherman, Howard Ave., he and his wife having reconciled.

Heaviest

winds up to 25 miles an hour, battered Pennsylvania today and paralyzed virtually all of the state, particularly Philadelphia and its suburbs.

The storm, which began Sunday, dumped up to 15 inches of snow on Philadelphia, the state's largest city, 12 in Somerset and Bedford counties, and amounts ranging from 5 inches in Pittsburgh to 9 inches in Harrisburg.

Then it began to taper off gradually, except for the mountainous areas.

But the heavy overnight and early morning fall, worst of the season, tied the state in a knot. Subfreezing temperatures prevailed.

The snow disrupted transportation, and in some cases caused it to come to a complete halt. It brought traffic to a standstill, delayed workers and caused some to miss work altogether. Virtually all the schools in the state closed. Many industrial plants and offices shutdown or operated with skeleton forces.

Five deaths were attributed to the storm. Two persons were killed in skidding accidents, two men suffered fatal heart attacks while shoveling snow and John Hall, 50, Valley Forge handyman, froze to death in a huge snowdrift on the academy grounds.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court unanimously upheld today a decision of a three-judge federal court in New Orleans which swept aside special Louisiana laws to preserve segregation.

Like the lower court, the Supreme Court bluntly rejected Louisiana's effort to block desegregation by invoking the old doctrine of interposition. This is a theory that the state can interpose its sovereignty between federal courts and state citizens.

Hiram Lentz shot a seven-point buck near his home, Orrtanna R. 1, about 7:15 o'clock Saturday morning.

William Singley, Cashtown, shot a five-point buck on McCleary's hill, near Fairfield, late last week.

Owen Bucher, Cashtown, shot an eight-point buck on Harbaugh's hill along Green Ridge.

Richard Rinehart, Gettysburg, shot a doe near Romey, W. Va., on the first day of the season there.

CHRIST CHURCH NEWS

Four infants were baptized by the Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor, during the worship service in Christ United Church of Christ on Sunday morning. The parents were the baptismal sponsors for the following children: Stacy Lee Bair, born October 3, 1960, daughter of Theodore L. and Dorothy Mae (Staley) Bair, Hanover; Brent Robert Hunter, born October 21, 1960, son of Robert L. and Pauline F. (Reigle) Hunter; David Bruce Myers, born November 2, 1960, son of Mervin K. and Mary Catherine (Unger) Myers, Littlestown R. 2; Debra Ann Sentz, born August 11, 1960, daughter of Norman R. and L. Christine (Henderson) Sentz, N. Queen St.

Ralph L. Snyder, James L. Stambaugh, Bernard W. Dutterer and Kenneth E. Hilker served as ushers for the worship service. The choir sang the anthem "The Birthday of a King" and the sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Koons. The altar flowers were placed by the Altar Guild. A rosebud was placed on the altar by the Women's Guild in honor of Barry Wayne Arentz, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy W. Arentz. The bulletins were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph I. Unger Sr. in honor of their 42nd wedding anniversary. The secretary-treasurer of the trustee committee, Roy A. Sterner, reported that the cemetery fund received $50 from Mrs. Alta M. Myers. It was announced that it will assist the treasurer and financial secretary if all contributions for 1960 are received by the last Sunday in December.

Urges Rejection Of Kennedy Plan

DENVER (AP)—A major farm organization leader today urged the new Congress to turn thumbs down on the farm program of President-elect John F. Kennedy promising a new era of government regulation of agriculture.

President Charles B. Shuman of the American Farm Bureau Federation declared farmers rejected the Kennedy proposals at the recent presidential election. Most Midwestern farm states voted for Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Kennedy's Republican opponent.

"This election should end for all time the fiction that farmers want more government regulation and price determination in this business," Shuman said.

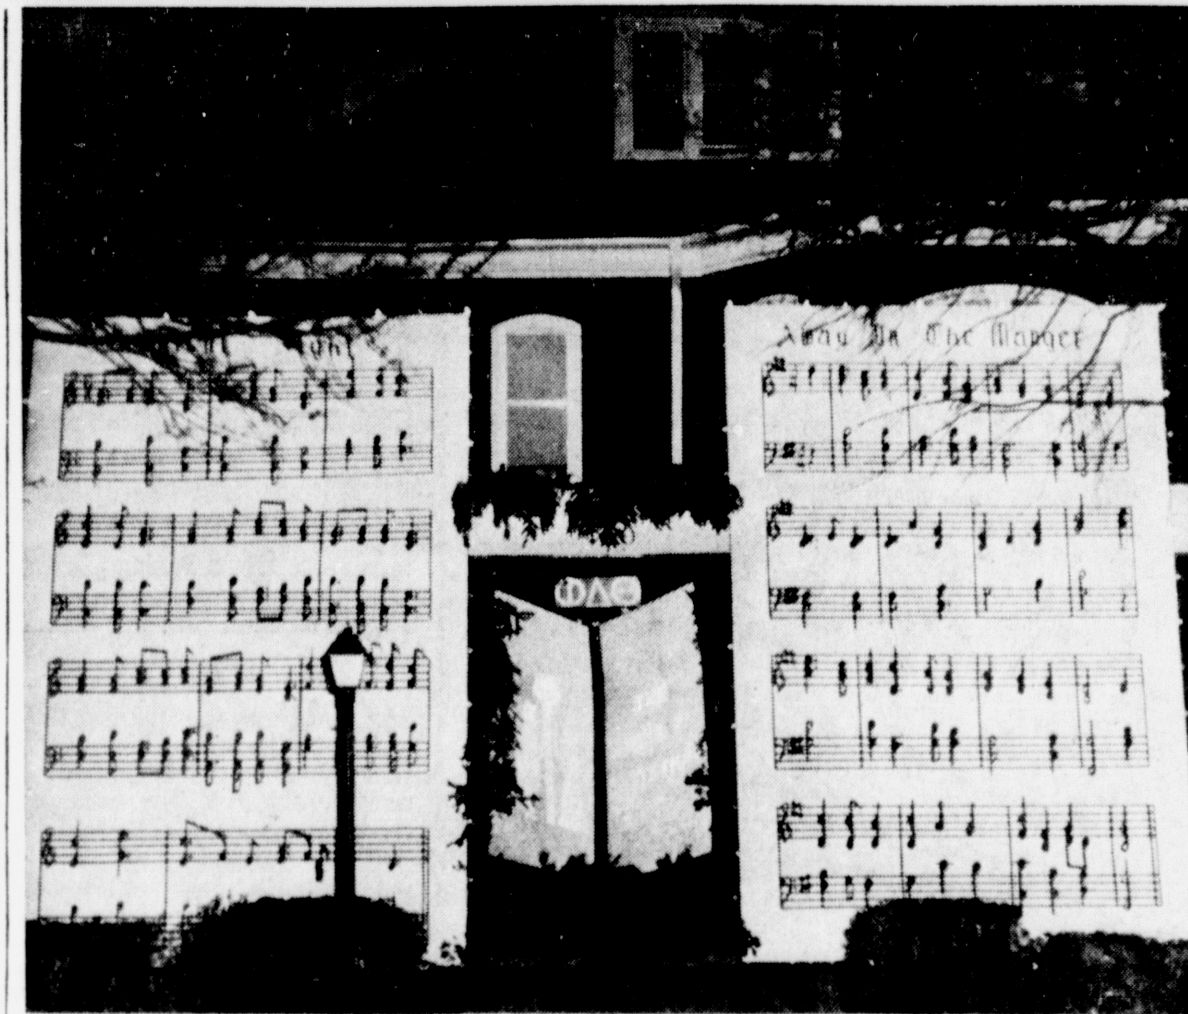

The farm leader expressed this opinion in a speech prepared for the opening session of the federation's four-day national convention and at a news conference.

ORDER TRAFFIC STUDY
HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission has ordered engineering studies of traffic congestion at five tunnels on the road's western end.

The commission said over the weekend the studies will be undertaken at Ray's Hill, Sideling Hill, Tuscarora, Kittatinny and Blue Mountain tunnels. Design of a new bypass and tunnel at Laurel Hill and Allegheny Tunnels was started last August.

Snow-Ice Storm Delivers Damaging Blows In East; 15 Deaths Over Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A pre-winter snow-ice storm, sweeping out of the Southwest and across the midlands, struck damaging blows in the eastern part of the nation today.

The first heavy snow of the season, up to a foot in some areas, blanketed wide areas eastward to the Atlantic Coast and into parts of the South.

The snow, strong winds and freezing weather came 10 days before winter's official start. The storm was blamed for at least 15 deaths over the weekend. Most of them resulted from traffic accidents on icy or snow-covered streets or from over-exertion while shoveling snow.

FOOT OF SNOW

Nearly a foot of snow piled up in the western Maryland mountain region. In northern Virginia, with more than six inches on the ground, falls of a foot were predicted.

Snow measured nearly a foot in the West Virginia eastern Panhandle. Between 4 and 8 inches covered areas in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey and foot-high falls were in prospect in some sections of Pennsylvania.

Heavy snow was forecast from southeastern Pennsylvania northward into southern Maine. Traffic was a mess in the big fore whom he was charged by state police with driving too fast for conditions. Damage was estimated at $400 to Balogh's auto and $150 to Timmerman's.

Damage totaled $280 in an auto accident 6 1/2 miles north of here on the Harrisburg Rd. at 1:45 o'clock Sunday morning.

Police said Gerald E. Poorman, 29, Alexandria, Va., had pulled off the side of the highway while headed north. A number of south-bound cars slowed as they came upon the auto off the highway.

Police said Joseph Hackett, 21, Fort Richie, driving south, braked when he came upon the slowing cars ahead and his auto skidded off the highway into the Poorman car parked off the other berm. No one was injured.

Littlestown 12TH ANNUAL "PERSONNEL" DINNER HELD

Close to 200 persons were in attendance at the 12th annual personnel dinner of the Littlestown Joint School System, held on Saturday night in the Rolling Acres Elementary School's all purpose room. As the guests assembled in the foyer, which featured a decorated Christmas tree and other holiday decorations, music was played by this brass quartet: Paul Bowman, Donald Arbogast, Ronald Feeser and Robert Benner.

John H. Riley, elementary school principal, served as toastmaster. The table blessing was sung by "The Schoolmasters," including Donald Sheely, Jack Bream, Clayton L. Evans and Robert Musser, of the faculty. Following the appetizer, the Senior high boys, who served the banquet, gathered around a five-foot three-tier white birthday cake with red lighted candles and sang "Birthdays of the King" with Larry Unger as soloist. The boys wore white coats and carried white napkins and the group included James Kroh, Fred Snyder, John Strevig, Larry Unger, Charles Mummert, Larry Bair, Ronald Feeser, Donald Jones, George Collins, Jerry Hall, Richard Hornberger, Robert Benner, Gene Apple, Clyde Brumgard, Richard Mackley, Wayne Shoemaker, Donald Selby, Randy Yohn, Lester Barnes, Paul Bowman, David Slusser, Dale Bair, Richard Motter, Frank E. Basehoar Jr., Philip Close, Jeffrey Breighner, James Bowman, Dwight Strevig, Ted

Guest speaker for the evening was Prof. William Darrah of the biology department of Gettysburg College, whose message concerned "Years to Remember." For the extrovert, "Silent Night," Donna Rabenstein was at the piano.

Joyce Strevig, the flute, and Joan Barton, the bells; the assembly sang the carol, while viewing a snowfall on stage.

The general committee for the annual personnel dinner was com-

Bortner, Larry Myers and Thomas Shildt.

A roast capon meal was served, prepared by the cafeteria staff of the school. Dinner music was recorded Christmas carols. The individual tables boasted red tablecloths, with lighted red and white candle centerpieces and favors were decorated cardboard candles which contained the scroll-type menu and program.

Miss Signe Wagnild, vocal instructor at the schools, directed a Christmas carol song festival with Donna Rabenstein as accompanist. A wassail, "The Yule Log," was presented on stage by a choral group consisting of Joan Barton, Grizelda Hahn, Susan Todt, Larry Unger, Richard Hornberger, Paul Bowman, Richard Motter and Vicki Miller as the little child participant.

C. P. Keefer, Adams County superintendent of schools, was introduced and spoke briefly. All members of the county staff were among the guests in attendance. Dale W. Starry, president of the Littlestown Jointure Board of Directors, brought greetings, Paul J. King, supervising principal of the jointure, extended a welcome, and expressed appreciation to Mrs. Virginia Sheely, head of the home economics department; Ronald Hall, industrial arts department; Mrs. Nelle Held, special ed. teacher; Donald C. Sheely, art supervisor and the cafeteria staff for the table decorations, favors, stage scenery, etc.

WILL STUDY VOTE SYSTEM

Assemblyman Francis Worley said he will initiate a state of study methods of electing presidents of the United States because he and many of his constituents see a need or reform. He said:

"This election indicates that the system of electing a President is in need of a reform. I know that there are several proposals to be submitted to Congress. Each one of them has merit. However rather than to depend on Congress to effect reforms, I feel that the states ought to take the initiative. Therefore I am going to give thorough study to the various proposals and offer an amendment to the federal Constitution in accordance with Article V when the General Assembly convenes.

"The three plans that I have in mind are: (1) To abolish the Electoral College and have the President elected by popular vote; (2) divide the electoral votes of each state among the candidates according to their proportion of the popular vote, and (3) elect the presidential electors in each congressional district with two electors elected at large in each state.

"I intend to study these and submit the one which I feel is most equitable and just and most likely to reflect the will of the people. To that end I invite the opinion of everyone interested in the matter."

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Fatal Accident: We learn that Michael Bucher, Esq., of Hanover, met with an accident in that place on Thursday last, which resulted in his death on Friday. It seems that he was walking on the turnpike near Kohler's tavern, and a horse attached to a wagon running off behind him struck Mr. B. with great force, felling him to the earth, causing a severe wound upon his forehead, and rendering him insensible up to his death. He was somewhat hard of hearing—otherwise, he would doubtless have heard the approaching horse in time to get out of his way. Mr. B. was well known and much respected.

Christmas Is Coming: We have unmistakable evidence on all sides of us that Christmas is coming. The shop windows of every description present a fair appearance, and all kinds of goods are displayed in the most tempting and inviting manner. This, together with the approach of the 25th of December, and the merry twinkle in the boys' eyes, proves beyond a doubt that Christmas is coming; so get ready, boys, for that greatest of holidays among the juveniles.

School Holidays: We understand that the public schools will be closed from the 14th of December until the 14th of January—the Board, instead of giving a recess of three months in mid-summer, as heretofore, having determined to have but two months recess in summer, and one in midwinter. The examinations last week were quite satisfactory.

Secession: The secession feeling is spreading in Texas and Louisiana. It seems almost certain that six or seven States will go out, unless the Northern States speedily repeal their nullifying "personal liberty" laws.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The Message: Regarding President Cleveland's message as too important and too good to "cut" or "extract," we give the whole in a supplement. It is one of the clearest and most comprehensive documents ever sent to Congress, and there are those who assert that it has not been equalled since the days of Jackson. The country receives it with strong fervor, and nothing sensible has been urged against it.

Mr. Vanderbilt Dead: William H. Vanderbilt, the great millionaire and railroad magnate, died at his residence, in New York, on Tuesday afternoon between 2 and 3 o'clock, of apoplexy, caused by the bursting of a blood-vessel at the base of the brain. Robert Garrett, president of the B & O Railroad, was alone with Mr. Vanderbilt in conversation when the fatal stroke came, and after placing a pillow under his head summoned Mrs. Vanderbilt and family. Death was very sudden; he never spoke and ceased to breathe in a few minutes. He had not been robust for a year or two, and death was not altogether unlooked for.

What The Negroes Have Found: The New York Freeman says that the colored people of Virginia have found that instead of harming them the election of the Democratic President has been for their benefit. They see, after the experience of many months, that their Republican leaders humbugged them when they drove them to the polls to vote the Republican ticket on the ground that Democratic ascendancy meant danger to their rights. They have discovered that their Democratic white neighbors have no hostility to them as a race, and are really their most trustworthy friends, whom they alienated only because they insisted on a political separation based on a color line, and timidly followed leaders dangerous to both races.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Today's Talk

KEEP ASPIRING!

It is much easier to look up than down—because it is more natural.

Yet what a large number of people have gotten into the habit of looking down. For looking down is a habit, after all.

Success is a great deal of a fluid—to feel it and form a part of its flow, we must get into it. Keep aspiring!

A large part of the fascination of the stars comes from the fact that we have to look up in order to see them. Then, too, they are a long way off.

The longer you have to wait for that which you most desire, the more prized it will be by you when you get it.

The note of aspirations running through these mortal bodies of ours, is what gives to them their divinity.

We speak of our souls. But what are our souls?

Is the soul not that something about us all which, the intangible in itself, makes tangible all else that is worth while?

Could we really aspire without the knowledge that we have a soul?

What day would be worth the living without something within us, or apart from us, to make us aspire to something far above our weakness and frailty? Keep aspiring!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Whispering Leaves"

THE PATH OF PEACE

The path of peace I choose to tread,

Its fertile sides are green,

The skies are gentle overhead.

The shady nooks are serene.

On it the toiler clean of heart

Tramps home at close of day,

And on it with a noisy cart,

The little children play.

No foe in ambush waits to kill,

No soldier guards its gate,

Its men their little gardens till

Nor dread a gruesome fate.

Its music is the simple songs

Contentment always sings

Where all the wrongs are little

Wrongs,

And all the subjects kings.

The path of peace I choose to tread

Where faith and hope abide,

Where mothers mourn no

Slaughtered dead

And wives are smiling-eyed.

Where love and happiness await

The men at close of day,

And where, secure from greed or

Hate,

The little children play.

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Gov. Lawrence says the time has come to reassess basic attitudes toward Israel's aims and role in world affairs.

"I have great faith in Israel," the governor told an Israel Bond dinner in Erie Sunday night. "I have faith in its people to meet their own challenges."

"But I know, only too well, that Israel must have the encouragement and the practical support of other nations and their people," he added. "For those of us who live in free nations, there is no other choice."

SYNOPSIS: Costenbricker learns that Santa cannot help him in his search for the black pearl. He now regrets having put Santa's elves and reindeer to sleep. He tries to wake them by chanting his magic formula. But, alas, he cannot remember the words!

Chapter Seven

MICHAEL'S PLAN

Costenbricker sat with his head in his hands. "I can't remember the words that will break the spell," he muttered unhappily.

"But you must!" cried Santa. "Think!"

"I am thinking," sighed Costenbricker. "But, as I told you, I am very old and I do not remember things as well as I did a hundred years ago. That is why I would like to have my black pearl. It will bring back my youth and my mind will be young and lively again."

"Santa paced furiously up and down while Michael gazed horrified at the roomful of sleeping elves and Mrs. Claus fluttered her apron and moaned.

Suddenly Costenbricker's face lit up and he said sharply, "PEELS! PEELS, ELTTE SEEVIE!"

All eyes turned and eagerly searched the room. But the elves slept peacefully on.

Costenbricker drooped again. "Those must have been the same words that put them to sleep," he said dolefully and he twisted his parasol round and round and pondered some more.

Santa threw up his hands and Mrs. Santa collapsed in a chair. Michael stood in a corner and thought and thought. Finally he came up to Costenbricker and said "Are you sure you would remember the words if you had your pearl?"

"Oh, absolutely," said Costenbricker nodding his head vigorously.

"Then I will get the pearl," said Michael.

"What?" cried Santa.

"Make me the flippers and lungs you promised and I can dive for the sunken treasure," said Michael, his eyes shining with excitement.

"Oh, dear," said Santa. "I meant for you to explore in the friendly seas near your home. To dive for sunken treasure would be dangerous. Who knows what lies in the ocean deep?"

"Please!" cried Michael. "Please let me try!"

Santa gazed in distress at his sleeping dwarfs and the mountain of unfinished toys. At last he said, "Very well. I must let you go for unless you succeed we cannot have Christmas this year."

With Michael at his heels, he hurried into his own private work room at the end of the shop. Here were tools of every description, and shelves of models, and barrels of toys and autos and boats and watches and a hundred other wonders.

On a nearby table were stacks of notebooks in which Santa kept, neatly listed, the requests for gifts from every little boy and girl in the world. On his desk there were blue prints for a marvelous new toy he had planned to put in every Christmas stocking that year.

While Michael watched in wonder, Santa set about pulling out sheets of rubber, blocks of glass, and tubes of plastic. Motors whirled and chips flew as he cut, fitted and molded. He worked quickly and surely but even so it was a long time before the job was finished.

Finally he was ready. He strapped a small round tank on Michael's shoulders and showed him how to connect it by a breathing tube to a face mask. Then he gave him a pair of strong rubber flippers.

"There," he said, "You are now a Boyfish and anywhere a fish can go you can go, too."

Michael examined his treasures. He could hardly wait to be away and at the bottom of the sea.

Costenbricker, leaning unsteadily on his parasol, appeared at the door. "Ready?" he asked.

"Wait a bit," said Santa. "I will get one of the reindeer to take you."

"The reindeer are asleep," Costenbricker reminded him sadly. "But no matter. I have my own means of transportation." With that he hung open the parasol at his side and said, "Come, Boyfish, we are off!"

LEAFS WALLOP
CHICAGO 6 TO 1;
STAR NETS 4

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Frank Mahovich of the Toronto Maple Leafs is giving the Chicago Black Hawks fits while moving into a strong position for an assault on the National Hockey League's goal-scoring record.

The 22-year-old left winger brought his season total to 25 goals Sunday night by scoring four times as the Leafs walloped the Hawks 6-1. In other games, the pace-setting Montreal Canadiens won their eighth in a row, defeating Detroit 5-1, and the Boston Bruins came from behind to tie the New York Rangers 2-2.

Mahovich has six games to play before the Leafs reach the halfway point in the 70-game schedule. He is already halfway home as far as the season record for goals is concerned. The standard is 50 set 16 years ago by Maurice (Rocket) Richard of Montreal.

GETS 9 OFF CHICAGO

Mahovich has registered nine of his goals at the expense of Black Hawk goalie Glenn Hall. He had help Sunday night from Bert Olmstead, who netted the other two for Toronto. Bobby Hull got Chicago's lone tally.

Boom Boom Geoffrion, Don Marshall, Doug Harvey, Jean Beliveau and Henri Richard scored for Montreal, which holds a seven-point lead over second-place Toronto. Gordie Howe, spoiled sub-goalie Charlie Hodge's potential shutout with his seventh goal 13 seconds from the end.

Boston put together goals by Johnny Bucyk and Don McKenney in the final six minutes to earn a deadlock with New York. Harry Howell and Johnny Wilson found the mark for the Rangers.

Dean Prentice, the Rangers' left winger, suffered a dislocated bone in his left wrist and will be sidelined for at least two weeks.

In Saturday's games, Montreal scored three times to whip Detroit 6-4, Toronto beat Chicago 5-2 and New York blanked Boston 3-0.

Warriors 132-121

National Basketball Association

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When Wilt Chamberlain's point total is held to reasonable limits, the chances of beating the Philadelphia Warriors are that much easier.

Sunday night, the big Warrior center was limited to 31 points and the Syracuse Nationals came away with a 132-121 victory in the only National Basketball Assn. game scheduled.

The setback cut Philadelphia's first place lead in the Eastern Division to a half game over runner-up Boston. The Nationals trail the Celtics by five games.

"MY DEAR CHILD"

Here little darling . . . close to my heart . . . never to wander . . . never to part . . . now I embrace you . . . so tenderly . . . this time is precious . . . and priceless to me . . . my arms enfold . . . a sweet blushing rose . . . could I but transplant . . . my love into prose . . . we are together . . . gone, doubt and fear . . . such is the case . . . when heaven is near . . . you are my angel . . . someone I adore . . . so from my heart . . . do these phrases pour . . . star of my life . . . shine brighter each day . . . and from your stardust . . . I'll form a bouquet . . . keeping the flowers . . . always young and new . . . close to my heart . . . my dear child are you.

Ohio State Shows Class As Other Court Powers Continue Win Streaks

By JOHN CHANDLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
Ohio State, led by All America Jerry Lucas, has done nothing to shake the idea the Buckeyes are the team to beat for the Big Ten basketball championship again this year—and perhaps the NCAA crown for the second consecutive season.

There is another Mid-western outfit that might challenge Ohio State when the tournaments roll around next March. Bradley is the name, and rivals in New York's National Invitation tournament are well aware of it.

Ohio State pulverized Army Saturday, 103-54 for its third straight victory after fairly easy wins over Ohio University and St. Louis. The Bucks, loaded with talent, had four players scoring in double figures, Lucas tops with 29.

BRADLEY TRIUMPHS

Bradley, also undefeated, had a little more trouble, but pulled away in the final four minutes to defeat Butler 71-65. Previously, Bradley beat Minnesota and the California Aggies. Bradley has been going along as runner-up to Cincinnati in the Missouri Valley Conference, but it looks as if the Braves could make the grade this time. That would put them in the NCAA, and could bring a tournament summit meeting with Ohio state if things follow the script.

Wichita and Drake, who are unbeaten and could make it tough in the Missouri Valley race for Bradley, also won Wichita clipped Iowa State 75-58, while Drake downed Michigan 83-72.

Illinois and Michigan State, also unbeaten in the Big Ten, were idle Saturday. The Illini meet Colorado, 71-57 winner over Oregon Saturday, tonight at Boulder.

Detroit won over Indiana 81-79 in double overtime on Tom Villumire's 20-foot corner set shot in the final second. Maryland also invaded Big Ten territory and bounced Minnesota out 64-53.

TERPS IN LEAD

Maryland and North Carolina State are 4-0 in the Atlantic Coast Conference, where a tight race looms. Duke (3-0) and North Carolina (2-0) also are to be reckoned with. Duke defeated West Virginia 66-64, and N.C. State downed The Citadel 88-71, with North Carolina idle but meeting Kentucky Tuesday.

Gary Cunningham scored 24 points to lead UCLA to a 93-69 victory over barnstorming New York University. Kansas State stopped Southern California 66-57. Touring Miami (Fla.) ran into a buzzsaw as Brigham Young won 112-80, and Utah scuttled Texas Christian 101-55. Wyoming also added to the woes of Southwest conference teams, beating Baylor 58-52, while Tulane took Texas 61-49.

Arkansas managed a 77-71 victory over Mississippi, and Oklahoma State finally lost, with Tulsa the victor 59-57. Rice beat LSU 67-50.

St. Bonaventure rallied to make it 4-0 by defeating Eastern Kentucky 78-69, and Niagara also came from behind to beat LaSalle 77-71.

The Bluegrass festival tournament opens tonight at Louisville with Western Kentucky (4-0) meeting Utah State (2-2) and Georgia Tech (3-0) taking on Louisville (5-0). Louisville tuned up Saturday by defeating Xavier of Ohio 76-64.

Yale And Navy To Share Grid Trophy
NEW YORK (AP)—Yale won a coin flip with Navy and elected to receive Sunday.
What the Eli received was the Lambert Trophy — emblematic of Eastern major college football supremacy. However, the Eli must give the trophy back to the Midshipmen in six months for both were given equal billing by the Board of Judges, the first time two teams have ever tied. Syracuse won last year.
Bucknell got the Lambert Cup as the Eastern small college champion, succeeding the University of Delaware.
Yale, undefeated in nine games, is the Ivy League champion. Navy 9-1, will meet Missouri in the Orange Bowl. Bucknell has an 8-2 record, losing to Rutgers and Cornell, both major schools.
Dudley said he checked several weather maps, made various calls including one to Chicago, and from all indications "we should have clear weather over the weekend with the temperature about 42 degrees."
Dudley said he was told a high would blow the snow storm out. He added that he felt 42 degrees was crisp, ideal football weather.
HOPES FOR GOOD CROWD
The promoter expressed hopes for a better crowd than last year's 32,000 paid when Penn State defeated Alabama 7-0 in the inaugural. He said the Liberty Bowl needs a crowd of between 30,000 to 35,000 to break even. Philadelphia Stadium site of the game which will be televised nationally by NBC, holds 100,000.
Last year, according to Dudley, Penn State and Alabama each took home $98,000 while the Liberty Bowl Association's profits amounted to some $3,000.
Dudley said that thus far the Philadelphia office has sold between 12,000 and 13,000 tickets and hopes to top the 16,000 of last year.
MAY SELL 10,000
Although Penn State hasn't reported yet on its sale of tickets, Dudley said there is a good chance they might be able to reach 10,000 or 12,000 compared to 8,500 last year.
He said one reason for this was that last year's Christmas recess Penn State fell before the game whereas this year it comes four days after the game. Thus, he figures more students will make the 100-mile trip to Philadelphia from University Park, Pa., to take in the contest.
Dudley also expects many of Oregon's 3,000 alumni in the East and about 1,000 from the state itself to attend. And still to be counted are sales by ticket agencies and the gate sale which amounted to only 1,200 last year.

HOPES FOR GOOD CROWD
The promoter expressed hopes for a better crowd than last year's 32,000 paid when Penn State defeated Alabama 7-0 in the inaugural. He said the Liberty Bowl needs a crowd of between 30,000 to 35,000 to break even. Philadelphia Stadium site of the game which will be televised nationally by NBC, holds 100,000.
Last year, according to Dudley, Penn State and Alabama each took home $98,000 while the Liberty Bowl Association's profits amounted to some $3,000.
Dudley said that thus far the Philadelphia office has sold between 12,000 and 13,000 tickets and hopes to top the 16,000 of last year.
MAY SELL 10,000
Although Penn State hasn't reported yet on its sale of tickets, Dudley said there is a good chance they might be able to reach 10,000 or 12,000 compared to 8,500 last year.
He said one reason for this was that last year's Christmas recess Penn State fell before the game whereas this year it comes four days after the game. Thus, he figures more students will make the 100-mile trip to Philadelphia from University Park, Pa., to take in the contest.
Dudley also expects many of Oregon's 3,000 alumni in the East and about 1,000 from the state itself to attend. And still to be counted are sales by ticket agencies and the gate sale which amounted to only 1,200 last year.

Yale And Navy To Share Grid Trophy
NEW YORK (AP)—Yale won a coin flip with Navy and elected to receive Sunday.
What the Eli received was the Lambert Trophy — emblematic of Eastern major college football supremacy. However, the Eli must give the trophy back to the Midshipmen in six months for both were given equal billing by the Board of Judges, the first time two teams have ever tied. Syracuse won last year.
Bucknell got the Lambert Cup as the Eastern small college champion, succeeding the University of Delaware.
Yale, undefeated in nine games, is the Ivy League champion. Navy 9-1, will meet Missouri in the Orange Bowl. Bucknell has an 8-2 record, losing to Rutgers and Cornell, both major schools.
Dudley said he checked several weather maps, made various calls including one to Chicago, and from all indications "we should have clear weather over the weekend with the temperature about 42 degrees."
Dudley said he was told a high would blow the snow storm out. He added that he felt 42 degrees was crisp, ideal football weather.

Recession Puzzle Heads List Of 10 Top Business Stories In Perplexing '60

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Industry's hesitation waltz and the debated prestige of the dollar have vied for the headlines in 1960. And here, in one man's opinion, are the 10 top business stories in a year that leaves a lot of people more perplexed as it ends than when it began.

1. The recession puzzle. Is it or isn't it? And if this is only an adjustment, when will we be adjusted? The story has run almost the whole year through—industrial production faltering, unemployment high and rising now, steel output making one disappointing headline after another, business trimming spending on plant and equipment and hesitant about the new year, inventory policy turning hand-to-mouth and stubbornly refusing to change back to build-up.

OUR GOLD GOING

2. The gold loss and the dollar's reputation. In the last three years some $11 billion more have gone out of the country than have come in, and $5 billion of these expatriated dollars have been turned into gold—our gold. Some Europeans wondered out loud if the U.S. dollar is as impregnable as it once was. For a brief period the price of gold on the London market was bid up to $6 more than the legal U.S. price of $35 an ounce. Angry or startled denials of dollar weakness or devaluation plans came from both sides of the Atlantic. To slow down the outflow of dollars and gold President Eisenhower made front-page headlines with cost cutting devices, such as bringing home dependents of U.S. military forces overseas.

3. The stock market. Tumbling prices hogged the business headlines in the early weeks of the year. Through the remainder of 1960 partial recoveries and subsequent backslidings alternately comforted the optimistic or caused the timid and cautious to shiver. Mutual fund sales slowed.

4. Easier money. The Federal Reserve Board relaxed its tight-money policy as business slowed. It cut its discount rate from 4 to 3 1/2 per cent in June, dropped stock margins to 70 per cent from 90 per cent in July, cut the discount rate again in August to 3 per cent, freed more bank reserves for lending in November and December. The banks themselves cut their prime lending rate to 4 1/2 per cent from 5 per cent in August. But at year's end bank loans to business had responded only feebly to easier money moves, the steam had gone out of the consumer installment purchases, and housing starts were lagging.

ELECTION AND PROFITS

5. The election enigma. Business took a wait and see stance, uncertain just what President-elect Kennedy might be planning or what Congress would approve.

6. The profit squeeze. Faltering sales in some industries clipped profit margins. In others, sales rose but profits still sank under the load of increasing labor and other operating costs that couldn't be offset by higher prices because of growing competition.

7. Foreign turmoil. General business uncertainty was fed off and on all year by a series of setbacks or threats to international stability—the U2 incident, the collapse of the Paris summit meeting, Castro, the Congo, Khrushchev's shoe brandishing at the United Nations.

AUTOS A QUESTION

8. The Detroit question mark. The auto industry turned out more cars in 1960, but the burgeoning compact cars took less steel and other materials than the old chariots. And dealers' stocks of unsold cars at times hit records.

9. The high cost of living. Commodity price weakness didn't halt the relentless climb of the consumer price index as the cost of services and of some finished goods continued to rise.

10. The fickle consumer. He began to save more, borrow more cautiously, switch his spending tastes from many big-ticket durables to soft goods, and give an increasing share of his money to services. His intentions were surveyed every little bit, but at year's end business still couldn't be sure if he would be its salvation next year.

FIRST PLAN ON APPORTIONING IS PRODUCED

HARRISBURG (AP)—The first proposal for reapportioning Pennsylvania House seats in line with the 1960 census is in the hands of Republican leaders in that chamber.

The author of the plan is Rep. Leroy A. Weidner, R-Berks, who headed the House Reapportionment Committee when the House was reapportioned last in 1953.

Weidner's plan would reduce the House seats from 210 to 209. Montgomery County would stand to gain the most—nine instead of its present six seats—under Weidner's plan. Two members each would be added to the Bucks and Delaware County delegations, which now have three and seven seats, respectively.

SOME COUNTIES LOSE

One seat each would be added in Beaver and Chester Counties, which now have three members, and in Westmoreland County which now has five.

Philadelphia, the state's largest city, would lose four House members, going from 39 to 35, under Weidner's plan. The city's population dropped 100,000 persons during the last 10 years.

Other counties losing one seat each would be Armstrong (two to one); Blair (three to two); Crawford (two to one); Fayette (four to three); Lackawanna (five to four) and Somerset (two to one).

Allegheny County's membership would stay the same at 28. The county's population jumped by about 6.9 per cent since 1950.

FRANKLIN GAINS

Lancaster County—With a population increase—would go from four to five members. Franklin County, which also had a population jump, would increase its representation from one to two members.

There would be drops, however, in Schuylkill (four to three); in Clearfield (two to one); and Luzerne (seven to six) Counties because of population changes in the coal regions in the last decade, Weidner added.

Both parties are expected to introduce reapportionment bills in the next session which meets Jan. 3.

The Constitution stipulates that reapportionment must be carried out after each federal census but provides no penalty for failure to do so. The Senate was reapportioned last in 1906.

FATAL INJURIES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Head injuries suffered in a traffic mishap have claimed the life of Stanley Albright, 68, of Pittsburgh's Herron Hill section.

Albright died Saturday in Allegheny General Hospital. He was hit by a car on Nov. 29 in Pittsburgh.

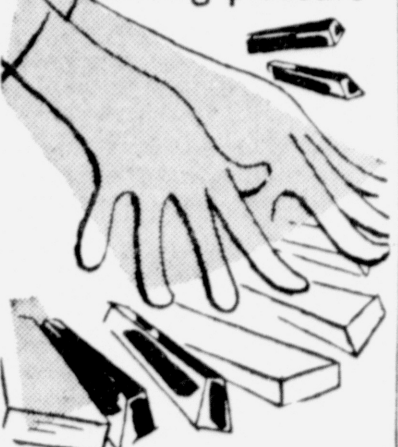

Chief Justice Charles Alvin Jones of the State Supreme Court will administer the oath of office to the electors who, in turn, will elect a president and vice president to preside over their meeting.

Then the electors will cast separate ballots for the election of Lyndon B. Johnson as vice president.

PLAN DAY OF PRAYER AT ST. ALOYSIUS

The annual Day of Prayer for the victims of religious persecution will take place next Sunday in St. Aloysius Catholic Church as announced by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. John E. Metz. There will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament after the late Mass throughout the day and a Holy Hour at 7 p.m. to conclude the day of prayer. Members of the congregation are asked to participate in a parish communion at one of the Masses and to make visits of adoration to the Blessed Sacrament throughout the day.

The adoration period for altar boys will be as follows: 12 noon to 12:30 p.m., Ronald Redding; 12:30 to 1 p.m., Robert Alfott; 1 to 1:30 p.m., Thomas Grogan; 1:30 to 2 p.m., James Long; 2 to 2:30 p.m., Gary Long; 2:30 to 3 p.m., James Weaver; 3 to 3:30 p.m., Clyde Rohrbach; 3:30 to 4 p.m., Laurence Alfott; 4 to 4:30 p.m., Francis Redding; 4:30 to 5 p.m., George Peart; 5 to 5:30 p.m., Robert Miller; 5:30 to 6 p.m., Harold Storm; 6 to 6:30 p.m., Allan Ernest; 6:30 to 7 p.m., Gerard Alfott.

The parishioners joined in the annual pledge to the Legion of Decency and the League for Good Reading at the Masses on Sunday. Daily Mass this week will begin at 7:15 a.m. Fr. Metz announced that the annual Christmas Eve midnight Mass will be held along with five other Masses on Christmas Day. A Jesuit priest from Woodstock College will assist the pastor on Christmas Day. There will be a triduum in honor of the Infant Jesus on the evenings of December 22, 23 and 24.

PLAN DINNER MEETING

Robert J. Stonieser, president of the Littlestown Industrial Development Corporation, has announced that a dinner meeting of the corporation will be held on Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. in the Starlite Room, Dutterer's Restaurant. An important business session will follow the dinner.

The Littlestown Men's Bowling League will roll position rounds on Wednesday evening at Bankert's Recreation Center, N. Queen St. The following schedule will be in effect: 7 p.m., Five and Ten versus Crouse's Cranes, Dutterer's Restaurant vs. Eddie's Cleaners, VFW vs. Stonieser's; at 9 p.m., Eagles vs. Renner's, Boydie's vs. Mystic Chain and Foundry vs. Keystone. These rounds will determine the final standings of the teams in the first half of the 1960-61 season. If the teams do not roll on this night, they may roll any night up to January 4 and they should contact the secretary, Earl A. Rebert, when they plan to bowl.

A singles tournament will be held on Wednesday, December 21, and a doubles tournament on December 28. League play will resume on January 4. Squads roll is open only to sanctioned league bowlers at Bankert's Alley. Entry blanks must be filled in and can be secured at Bankert's and fees may be paid to managers of the alleys or to the secretary.

HONG KONG (AP)—Sir Edmund Hillary arrived here Saturday en route to the United States—with the mysterious Nepal scalp, believed to be 240 years old, tucked in a box. It will be examined by experts in Chicago for possible clues to the elusive "abominable snowman."

The government of Communist China has abolished the old-time richness on the ground that a man degrades himself by pulling another.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.
